NEWS FROM THE PARISH

FR GREG WRITES: On this Third Sunday of Ordinary Time, the Gospel presents us with the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. We hear his clear and compelling call: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand." As Jesus walks along the Sea of Galilee, he calls ordinary people—fishermen at their daily work—to leave what they know and follow him. Their immediate response reminds us that discipleship is not simply about words, but about a willingness to trust and to act.

Today also marks the conclusion of the Octave of Prayer for Christian Unity. Over these past days, we have prayed that all who follow Christ may be one. In the Gospel, Jesus does not call individuals to walk alone; he forms a community of disciples. Unity is therefore not an optional extra, but part of the very nature of the Church. We are called to follow Christ together, listening to his voice and witnessing to the Gospel with one heart and mind.

As we give thanks for the gift of unity, we also remember on Monday the anniversary of the death of Fr Bernard Kevil (1987), former Parish Priest of New Mills.

As Ordinary Time unfolds, may this Sunday encourage us to hear once again the Lord's invitation, "Come, follow me." May we respond with renewed commitment, deepen our desire for unity among Christians, and honour the legacy of those who have gone before us by living the Gospel with faith and love.
